

Writing Math

Complete each activity in your writing journal. When you have completed it, color in the square.

Subjects and Predicates Write 5 sentences. Circle the subject in each sentence. Underline the predicate in each sentence.	Types of Sentences Write 2 statements, 2 commands, 2 questions and 2 exclamations.	Statements Choose a book from our classroom library. Read the book and locate examples of statements. Copy down 5 statements from the book.	Commands Choose a book from our classroom library. Read the book and locate examples of commands. Copy down 5 commands from the book.
Questions Choose a book from our classroom library. Read the book and locate examples of questions. Copy down 5 questions from the book.	Exclamations Choose a book from our classroom library. Read the book and locate examples of exclamations. Copy down 5 exclamations from the book.	Noun Silly Sentences Write 5 sentences. Each sentence must have a person, place, thing and animal. Circle all the nouns when you are finished.	Common & Proper Nouns Make a list of 10 common nouns and the proper nouns that match them. Example: store = Target
Compound Words Write down 8 compound words. Then draw pictures that represent each part of the word. Example:  +  = 	Adjectives Draw and color a picture of one of your favorite things. Write 5 adjectives that describe it.	Plural Nouns Divide a page into 4 columns. And write the following headers. <table border="1" data-bbox="1279 659 1321 1037"> <tbody> <tr> <td>-s</td> <td>-es</td> <td>-ies</td> <td>-ves</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> Look for examples of plural nouns in a book and record them in the correct column.	-s	-es	-ies	-ves	Free Write Write a story about a time you were a good friend. Your story should have at least 6 sentences. After you are finished draw and color a picture of you being a good friend.
-s	-es	-ies	-ves				